Dear Sirs,

Thomas and Son had been recommended to me by friends who were also extremely happy with the work they had carried out on their home.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Thomas and Son as they are very through in the work they do, they are very pleasant and take their work seriously and carry the work out to a very high standard.

D Murray